

Amy Singer Borman, Esq.,
Chief Legal Officer/Chief Operating Officer, Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller, Palm Beach County

Amy Borman is the Chief Legal Officer and Chief Operating Officer (Courts and Official Records) at the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller's Office for Palm Beach County. Amy oversees both the in-house legal department as well as the operations for the criminal, civil, UFC, probate, and official records departments. Amy joined the Clerk's Office in August 2019 as the Director of Branch Court Services and was promoted to COO by Clerk Abruzzo in January 2021 and to Chief Legal Officer in January 2022. Prior to joining the Clerk's Office, she was the General Counsel to the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit of Florida where she served as the attorney to the judiciary and oversaw the law clerk and summer intern programs.

Amy is also an adjunct professor at various law schools where she teaches a course on the Rules of General Practice and Judicial Administration as well as at Florida Atlantic University's Wilkes Honors College. She serves on various committees for The Florida Bar, the Florida Court's Technology Commission, and the Palm Beach County Bar Association. Amy received her undergraduate degree from the University of Florida and her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center.